Ladies Meet Up for Inaugural BCWiT Social

Members of ASTTBC recently met for the inaugural BC Women in Technology (BCWiT) Summer Social to network and share stories and experiences as a woman working in the technology field. “We had a small turnout for the first event, but I am incredibly happy at the quality of the connections that we developed” said BCWiT Committee Member, Shannon Foster, AScT. “There is great enthusiasm for another meetup after the summer!”

The BCWiT Team is a core group of women, members of ASTTBC, representing various disciplines in the technology field. For information on BCWiT and upcoming events, please visit <http://bcwit.com/>
