

Microsoft celebrates International Women's Week

Women in STEM: Past, Present, and Future

Think about the magic of bringing women together in one space to discuss our accomplishments, challenges, and dreams, as well as empower the youth of tomorrow to embrace today's opportunities and overcome obstacles. Join us for a panel discussion on what it has meant to be a women in the STEM industries, networking, and a STEM workshop.

Panel speakers:

Shay Kingsbury: Development Manager at EA

Megan Chambers: Structural Design Technologist at ISL Engineering and Land Services

Dr. Chen Wan: Sector Manager, Health at Genome British Columbia

Colette Cheung: Client Executive at IBM

Khristine Carino: Director of Communications at SCWIST

Selyn Chen: IEEE Women in Engineering (WIE) Vancouver Chair & IEEE WIE West Canada Chair
